Guidance

1. Under Article 102(1) of the Regulatory Law 2004 the DFSA may suspend or withdraw the registration of a Registered Auditor or Audit Principal on its own initiative or at the request of the Registered Auditor or Audit Principal.
2. Article 102(2) of the Regulatory Law 2004 sets out the circumstances under which the DFSA may suspend or withdraw the registration of a Registered Auditor or Audit Principal. Generally, the DFSA will only consider exercising the power to withdraw the registration of a Registered Auditor or an Audit Principal on its own initiative after an investigation.
3. Under Article 102(4) of the Regulatory Law 2004, the DFSA may temporarily suspend the registration of a Registered Auditor or Audit Principal pending completion of an investigation or related proceedings against the Auditor or Audit Principal. The DFSA would generally only exercise this power where there are serious allegations of misconduct or a potential risk to client assets.
4. Under Article 27 of the Regulatory Law 2004, a Registered Auditor or Audit Principal may appeal a decision of the DFSA in relation to the exercise of powers to suspend or withdraw the registration of a Registered Auditor or an Audit Principal. The decision of the DFSA to suspend or withdraw a Registered Auditor's or Audit Principal's registration remains in effect until the appeal is heard and a decision is rendered, unless the Regulatory Appeals Committee orders a stay of the decision.
5. Under Article 102(3) of the Regulatory Law 2004 the DFSA may make Rules containing requirements a Registered Auditor or Audit Principal must meet before granting a request by such Registered Auditor or Audit Principal for withdrawal of registration.
6. An application by a Registered Auditor or Audit Principal to withdraw their registration does not in itself result in a withdrawal of the registration. Until such time as the DFSA withdraws the registration, the Registered Auditor or Audit Principal remains subject to, and must comply with, the Regulatory Law 2004, Rules and any other relevant legislation administered by the DFSA.

Suspension or withdrawal of registration on the DFSA's initiative

An Auditor is prohibited from acting as an Auditor for a Person referred to in Article 105(1) if it is providing any of the services set out in Rule 5.2.1 to that Person. However, Auditors should be aware that there may also be other types of non-audit services which can create a conflict of interest and that may need to be considered on a case by case basis under Article 105(2)(a) and (b) of the Law to determine whether such other non-audit services create a conflict of interest or lack of independence that affect its ability to provide Audit Services to the Person.

1. Where an Authorised Firm does not hold or control any Client Investments, Arrange Custody or Provide Custody as at the date on which the Authorised Firm's audited statement of financial position was prepared, the DFSA expects that such fact be stated to comply with A4.1.1 (a).
2. In producing a Safe Custody Auditor's Report an Auditor will need to consider which parts of COB App 6 are relevant to the Authorised Firm and only include an opinion to the extent relevant to the Authorised Firm's activity. For example, the application of COB App 6 to an Authorised Firm carrying on the Financial Service of Arranging Custody is much more limited than its application to an Authorised Firm carrying on the Financial Service of Providing Custody. In this particular instance an Auditor producing a Safe Custody Auditor's Report for an Authorised Firm carrying on the Financial Service of Arranging Custody, will generally only need to consider COB Rules A6.5.1(1), A6.5.1(2), A6.5.1(3), A6.5.2 and A6.7.1(1).
